WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 14, 1864.

News of To-Day.

Our dispatches to-day contain nothing of especial importance; nothing important from Nashville, nothing positive from Sherman, and we are told from Sacramento that there is no further news to-day from the East.

Governor Brown, of Georgia, in his message to the Legislature of that State, comments freely on the dictatorial inclinations of Davis, and thus affords some index to the state of the public mind in that section of the South.

Civilization and Puritanism.

Some eminent writer has said that the civilization of our age tends to barbarism, and proof of this is claimed to be found in the state of our own country at the present time; that, boasting as we do of the highest order of civilization, we are now plunged into all the horrors and barbarities of civil war. It may be well for religious teachers to inculcate the divine precepts, and preach the doctrine of peace on Earth and good will toward man; but they must also recollect that we are instructed to obey laws human as well as divine, and nowhere is the principle of resistance to Government taught in the New Testament, but we are expressly told to "be obedient to the powers that be." We only quote this to illustrate the position that man owes allegiance to the laws of man, entirely differing from and independent of his religious belief, while it is his privilege and duty to advance, as much as possible, the perfection of human government, and render it as nearly as possible consistent with the divine requirements. He must, nevertheless, surrender his own convictions when in conflict with the laws of the State. It was the idea of a principle of right superior to the laws that induced a fanaticism in the minds of some, on the question of slavery, when the fact was that these individuals were in no manner responsible for the sin of slaveholding, which existed by municipal enactment in States they were not citizens of. So war—barbarous, civil war—accompanied with all its attendant horrors, exists to-day, for the reason that those who wield the Government are, as they have sworn to do, upholding the supremacy of the laws of the land. It is fallacy to claim that war, being an evil, there can be no justification in resorting to it. This would be equivalent to surrendering the Earth to the rule of the baser minds upon it. As a people we must uphold the law, and give our lives, if need be, to its support.

Puritanism was one of the corner-stones laid in the foundation of our Republic, and the Puritans have given the world, probably, the civilization nearest approaching the Divine command earth [illegible] their idea of right, and that idea was invariably founded on the Scriptures. There are distinguished minds among us, certainly not sympathizing with the Government in the present struggle, whose complaints are equally of the purely human character of our civilization, and of the tendencies of Puritanism. If the latter erred, it was in measuring their acts by their ideas of Divine right, which these claim of the former that it fails to do so. There may be a millenium coming when the world shall know war no more. There may be a blissful future for earth when the lion and the lamb shall dwell together, but if it comes, we believe the Puritanism of New England and the civilization of the nineteenth century will have been steps to its attainment.

It was Walter Savage Lander who said that he did not believe that in all the world, beside, there were so many people who thought rightly as in New England; and to-day, if there is any section of our country to which, more than another, we are indebted for position abroad, and intelligence and wealth at home, it is to the land of the Puritans.

INDICATIONS.—We have been telling the world for some time past wondrous stories of the wealth of Owyhee. The many ledges and great richness of them are themes all the readers of our paper have been conversant with ever since they were discovered, for we have been among the mountain crags on Jordan creek, spent [illegible] in clambering over hills that bear riches equal to those of Arabian tales, could the wand of some friendly geni only reveal them to the sight. And it required more than the ordinary amount of self-control to wander among the laboring prospectors and not become over enthusiastic at the "prospects" that were brought to view by their patient toil. As for the ledges, "their name is legion," and there is room for working legions to develope them, and practical proof of this is to be seen now by all. Marion Moore, Esq., one of the principal owners in the Oro Fino and Morning Star ledges has lately come down with over $60,000 in silver bricks, duly impregnated with gold. The largest of these is something smaller than a soap box, and the smallest will tax one's sinews, somewhat to lift. Then it is the genuine and indisputable product of the two Owyhee ledges above named, and hundreds have seen it, and the rest can see it by looking into the Banking rooms of Messrs. Ladd & Tilton.

But while you are looking at the genuine "sugar," don't forget to see and handle the black looking specimen that lays near them, which is not exactly quartz, but is something better, being a piece of ore from the Morning Star Discovery Shaft, known as "polybasite," weighing some six pounds, we should judge, and assaying near seventy-five per cent of silver, falling not far short of the melted bars in richness.

IDAHO ITEMS.—At Owyhee the snow was four or five feet deep and the weather very cold.

George Owens has published an Idaho Directory filled with useful and interesting matter. Thieving and robbery was on the increase in Boise city. At Idaho city one "Dick" fired at a person named Curtz and hit a bystander, though not dangerously; quite a frequent occurrence.

The Union men of Boise Basin held a jubilee over the election of Mr. Lincoln, set up fireworks and fired guns, and kept it up until three o'clock in the morning, with several good natured Democrats in attendance.

WEATHER AT UMATILLA.—A friend writes that the weather there is growing colder, and ice forming on the shore where there is no current. The ponds are all frozen over and skating is the order of the day.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 8.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Tribune's special dispatch says: Merritt's expedition to Loudon valley has returned with 2,000 head of cattle and 4,000 head of sheep, besides some horses. The whole valley has been stripped of stock for at least eight miles on each side of the pike. All the barns containing hay and other forage were burned. A portion of the valley has been the rendezvous of Mosby's men. The object of the raid was to dispossess the guerrillas and deprive their supplies, and it has been partly effectual in doing so.

It appears that the country to the east of the mountains abounds in everything, just as it did before the war, the people having realized but little of the effects of the rebellion.

The message of Gov. Brown to the Georgia Legislature is published. The Governor takes strong grounds against the recommendations of Jeff Davis to the rebel Congress, to repeal the exemptions in all classes and vest in him discretionary power to detail such persons as he may think fit to pursue exempted professions; shows that no man could carry on any kind of business without the consent of Davis, and the liberty of the press would be entirely destroyed.

DENVER CITY, Dec. 8.—A detachment of the 1st and 3d Colorado cavalry, under Col. Chivington, had a fight with the Indians near Fort Tejon, and killed between 40 and 50 Indians, and captured about 500 ponies and three mules. The Chiefs Black Kettle, White Antelope and Little Robe were killed. The Indians were about 800 strong. Our loss was nine killed and 38 wounded. The troops are still in hot pursuit of the bloodthirsty savages.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 7.—Matters at the front present no change from the situation of several days past. There was less cannonading to-day than usual. A rebel battery was established on the bluff, fourteen miles down the river, last night, and seven gunboats went down the river and engaged the battery, without dislodging them from their position. The gunboats retired to-day, one of them being considerably damaged. A reconnoisance was made to-day, by our forces, between Lebanon and Nashville pike. After proceeding a short distance, the enemy were discovered in considerable force, whereupon our troops charged upon the hillside which they occupied, and drove them off. Two or three were killed and a number wounded.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 8.—Yesterday the Nashville Press says: The shelling of the rebel lines and their working parties was kept up on the river, but hardly so vigorously or persistently as the day before.

Forrest with his command is said to be across the Cumberland river. We can't vouch for the truth of the statement, but give it as we have it. An impression gains strength among both citizens and soldiers that the Confederates are evacuating. If this be so, a march on Kentucky may be said to have commenced, and we think it quite possible, indeed probable.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—A riot occurred yesterday between some members of Columbian Engine and Eureka Hose companies, in which paving stones and other missiles were freely used, and several persons badly injured. Wm. Brown fell from third story of Tiger Engine House, and escaped with the dislocation of an ankle.

Ben. Holladay's ocean steamer, Del Norte, will be launched to-morrow.

Samuel Throckmorton's title to the Sancelito Rancho was confirmed to-day. Lime Point comprises a portion of the ranch.

Currency exchange, 25; coin, 2; legal tenders, 46@46½—weak.

The Moses Taylor sailed this morning.

There has been a steady fall of rain since yesterday evening.

No Eastern news.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—The Golden City took four hundred and ninety passengers and $1,022,183 treasure.

The Jewelry store of C. Trutelson was robbed of several watches, besides a large amount of jewelry and silverware, this morning while the proprietor was partaking of his breakfast.

McLaughlin & Houston, contractors, have assigned [illegible] Jose Railroad to Donahoe, Polhemus and Newhall, Trustees.

[illegible] arrested to-day for playing on Sunday.

The steamer Del Norte was successfully launched to-day.

Legal Tenders, 46@46½.

Weather cleared up this evening.

The Sierra Nevada sailed for Portland and Victoria to-day.

Letter from the Dalles.

DALLES, Dec. 11, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Since the absence of our Mr. Newell we have no newspaper. It is true his successor is attempting masterly efforts at display, and it is universally conceded bears the palm for his happy hit at display of less ability than it has ever been our misfortune to encounter in one who has the impudence to attempt so great an imposition upon an intelligent community. His editorial attempts at wit and scandal would excite much interest and secure showers of encomiums, were his readers a band of "guerrillas" living on the North Fork of Goose Creek prior to the first visit of the pioneer schoolmasters, in his labored efforts at wit in regard to the weather. In the last three issues of the Daily Mountaineer he has failed to let you know whether we had rain, snow, cold or warm weather, and as it may be of some importance to shippers of your city, I write this to say that on Thursday night last snow fell to the depth of four inches and although Friday was a bright and rather warm day and reduced the snow to about two inches, the weather has grown gradually colder with a chilling North wind, decidedly indicative of a hard freeze, and the closing up of navigation for a time.

Do not forget to send us all the latest reading matter at hand. I have no doubt our "local" would be glad if any old defunct newspaper, which if they were ever read are forgotten, such as O'Meara's National Democrat, a small bundle of McCormick's oldest comic Almanacs, a few of the oldest numbers of the old Oregon City Argus, the Vox Populi, issued pending the sitting of the Legislature at Salem, in the dark days of Oregon's history, and a few of Josh Billing's most approved sayings for a new country.

We have daily arrivals from the North and East loaded with silver bricks, and gold dust. Block, Miller & Co's Assay Office, at this place, is completed and does good work. Yours, &c.,

DALLES.

MR. COMSTOCK.—This gentleman, whose experience in quartz has been great, and who has been a practical miner in all the branches practiced in New Mexico, California, Nevada, Oregon and Idaho, for sixteen years past, has been giving us some items relative to the character and importance of the mining districts lying on the head waters of the Columbia river.

Speaking of the quartz ledges found in the Boise Basin and in South Boise, in which he has lately been much interested, and where he has done much to develope and prospect the country he assures us that he considers, with the light of all his past experience to aid him, that country exceeds, in the extent and richness of its gold and silver bearing quartz, anything that he has ever known in life. And when we recollect that he gave his name to the celebrated Washoe ledge, and has been ever since searching the mountains for similar developments, we must acknowledge that his opinion is entitled to certain weight and importance not due to all others.

We gave a few days since a sketch of the quartz ledges in South Boise, which Comstock fully endorses, although he insists that in all points we are far below the truth, if erring in any respect. We hear of many mills to be erected in the eastern country the coming year, and have no doubt of the success that awaits the investment of capital there, and cordially hope that the hardy and enterprising pioneers who have opened up these treasures to the world, may reap their full proportion of the harvest that is in store.

HON. A. [illegible] U. S. Revenue Collector, passed through [illegible] yesterday, on his way to [illegible] the special tax on the income of 1863, at Vancouver to-day and to-morrow, and at the Cascades on the 18th and 19th.

Olympia Correspondence.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Dec. 8, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Believing that a portion of your readers take an interest in matters transpiring at the Capital of Washington Territory at this time, I venture in my poor way, to submit a short letter to your disposal.

Monday, Dec. 5th, being the day for the meeting of the Legislature, twenty-three members elect to the House appeared at the Capitol and temporarily organized by calling F. P. Dugan to the chair, and after appointing a committee on credentials, adjourned to 2 P. M. The House then stood, of the members present, twelve Democrats and eleven Union—three Democrats and four Union absent. The Democrats, with their accustomed shrewdness and trickery, saw that it was the time to elect a Speaker. When the hour for meeting arrived, [illegible] staying away and preventing a quorum, the Union members in the [illegible], went into the Democratic web and were "done for." After the report of the committee on credentials had been accepted, a Union member moved the House, [illegible] as a matter of courtesy (an obsolete word with the Democracy), that a little time be given for members to arrive, before proceeding to elect permanent officers. A motion was then made and carried to proceed to the election of Speaker; whereupon the Union members "bolted" for the door, but the Sergeant-at-Arms succeeded in keeping five of them inside the bar, and a quorum still being present, a vote was taken for Speaker, with the following result: F. P. Dugan, of Walla Walla, 10; B. F. Sexton, of Walla Walla, 4; A. L. Brown, of Walla Walla, 2; Joe Knight, of Clarke, 1; whereupon F. P. Dugan was declared, by the Chair, duly elected Speaker. After balloting for Chief Clerk, without a choice, the House adjourned to Tuesday morning.

TUESDAY, Dec. 6th.—No quorum. The Union side kept out, hoping for the arrival of Hays and Watson, absent members.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 8th.—Three more Democratic members (the entire force of the [illegible]) having arrived, the Union side concluded to go in and face the music—eleven to fifteen, expecting nothing, and they were not disappointed. Accordingly the House met and elected the following officers:

Chief Clerk—J. R. [illegible].
Assistant Clerk—A. A. Moses.
Sergeant-at-Arms—[illegible].
Door Keeper—T. D. Murphy.

The chief clerk and sergeant-at-arms are considered clever fellows and good Union men, but are not decided characters, and won't be taken, when elected by the Democratic side of the House. No other business of importance transacted that day.

THURSDAY, Dec. 8th.—House met and Speaker announced the standing committees.

B. F. Sexton offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Clergy of Olympia be requested to open the sessions of the House each morning with prayer.

The House then adjourned to Friday morning.

To-day the Council met and formed a temporary organization, appointed a committee on credentials and adjourned to Friday morning. There are 8 members in all, and but 5 present. The Council will stand, when all members are present—5 Democrats, 3 Union.

There seems to be a general disposition manifested by the members of both branches for a short session.

The Supreme Court of the Territory is now in session, with Hon. C. C. Hewitt, as Chief Justice, Hon. J. E. Wyche and Hon. E. P. Oliphant, as Associate Justices, on the bench. There is not a large amount of business before the court, and the term will probably close about the 20th instant.

The weather for the past few days has been clear and pleasant, but cold. To-day, cloudy and snowy. Yours truly, [illegible]

A SINKING STATE.—The most dangerous enemies of the soil of Florida are what its inhabitants call "Sinks." Those absorptions of the earth, though on a small scale, are, in fact so numerous, that one may almost ask—is Florida slipping between the fingers of both Federals and Confederates? and will she ultimately—like those high mountains of the Andes during the earthquake of Chile in 1840—vanish entirely from the [illegible] that sinking State, sinks of all sizes, forms and ages. Some are slight saucer-like depressions, [illegible] eighty yards across; or only uneven slopes and hollows, which would pass unnoticed were not one informed that the land just there had been "sinking" [illegible] such a time; or that an old inhabitant remembered a dead level where, now, there are various dells crowded with vegetation. Sometimes—and these are the most remarkable—the sinks are round and even, like wells, which, indeed, one might suppose them to be, so regular and perpendicular are their walls. Some are formed suddenly, during or after heavy rains, and are the result of one storm. They are sunk perhaps in an hour, in a night, without a sign or warning; in the middle of a road, of a garden, or it may be in a cattle-pen. On one plantation I know of several such sinks. One is about thirty feet deep, and eight or nine feet across; another is about twenty feet deep, and about four across the mouth. Sometimes it is not possible to distinguish the real bottom of the sink, for after the soil has been washed down to a certain distance, leaving a smooth, regular hole, jagged rocks are laid bare, and the opening to a subterranean passage, it may be of vast length and depth, is exposed.—All the Year Round.

"IT CAN'T BE POSSIBLE, MRS. SMITH, that this elegant cloak you have was embroidered in so exquisite a manner, in a single day, and by a Sewing Machine, at that? It seems the labor of weeks, and is really charming in its elaborateness and perfection. I perceive you have combined both embroidery and braiding with great taste and effect."

"Yes, it was accomplished easily in a day; and to the owner of a 'Grover & Baker' Sewing Machine, it is a task transformed into a pleasure; for it requires no more skill to embroider than for ordinary sewing, and is the most desirable, fashionable and elegant trimming conceivable for my own and children's garments."

THE COMING HOLIDAYS.—The coming holidays are not only indicated by the close proximity of the calendar to a termination of the Old Year, but the show windows on streets, and the stores of the city, are shadowing forth the busy anticipations of those coming mornings, which are the boon of happy mothers, proud fathers and appreciative friends and relatives, who annually go in quest of toys, during the delicacy of dolls, popguns, tin trumpets and drums. But this season there appears to be bigger gifts than toys for the holiday catalogue. Gold watches, chains, etc., elegant silk dresses for gifts, cuffs, wrappers, slippers, etc., handsome sewing machines, and an abundance of other articles, are thought of by those disposed to do the gorgeous, and that they are easily obtained is too patent to need telling in this connection. As was the case last year photographic albums seem to be a favorite for testimonials of esteem, and we predict that many will have enough of them to set up a book trade with when the holiday season is over. The display of fine articles included in the list of Christmas and New Years' presents, in various stores, is about as tempting as tempting can be, and is well calculated to operate upon the generous impulses, and purse, of a friend who has in view the kind acts of remembrance. Virtually, the holidays in this city will commence day after to-morrow, when a committee of the ladies of Portland are to meet and price the articles intended for sale at the Christian Commission Fair, during the next week. Their acts on behalf of the suffering soldiers will certainly be a pleasure, and must be rewarded at present by laying in bountiful supplies for the defenders of our Nation, and after a while the recompense of Heaven will be the testimonial for such labors of mercy. Do not by any means neglect a remembrance of this Fair, but make it a joyous holiday season for more souls than one. Another holiday is that of the ladies of the M. E. Church, set for to-morrow evening, at which time funds will be raised for the laudable undertaking of building a new edifice for that congregation. Sales will commence at 7 o'clock, supper at 8½ o'clock, and we commend their object to the patronage of a generous people.

ROBBERY AT THE BANK EXCHANGE.—We have refrained from giving any particulars or allusions in reference to the robbery perpetrated at the Bank Exchange in this city on Monday morning last, with a hope that the robber might be caught, but in all probability he has successfully escaped. The affair was conducted under the following circumstances, by the night keeper of the bar, Fred. Thornton. Mr. Charles Stewart, the regular keeper, has full charge of the place, and had retired to his chamber in the rear end of the establishment, with the keys of the safe, as customary leaving about $20 in the drawer for convenience of Thornton in making change. During the early hours of the morning Thornton applied to Mr. Stewart for the keys, on the plea as stated that he wished to change a $20 greenback, and did not wish to part with all his silver. The keys were given him, and in a few moments returned. Upon waking in the morning Mr. Stewart observed the front of the saloon closed and in a short time realized that a robbery had been committed. The safe was unlocked, and its contents amounting to the sum of $1,000 or more, abstracted. Mr. Rawlston, the proprietor, was immediately informed of the circumstance, and officers were put upon track of the thief, but as before stated nothing has been found of him up to last night. Two silver bricks were a part of his booty, which possibly may aid in his arrest. Thornton, it is since understood, escaped from Salt Lake recently with a stolen pair of horses, and has been stealing his way through the country, until he arrived here, and warrants for his arrest were expected soon to arrive from Walla Walla. But the bird hath flown.

QUARTZ.—The common expression on the streets yesterday was "Quartz!" And upon learning that the excitement was in consequence of a new display from Owyhee people would inquire, one to another: "What is our country coming to?" "BRICKS!" exclaimed a wag; and we thought so. Aside from those spoken of in another column, a Printer; yes, a veritable disciple of Faust, has been delighting our optics with a glimpse at a pair of bricks, fine little specimens worth about $75, pounded out of 30 lbs. of rock. The possessor of these little "evidences" is Mr. Yancey, of California, and he is returning home, not to "set type" however.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In Recorder's Court yesterday there were no city cases up for trial. Sitting as a Justice of the Peace, Judge McCoy held Lewis Cladad in the sum of $100 for his appearance, on a charge of stealing a pipe valued at $25 from A. Loeb. The evidence was not very clear as to guilt, but defendant failed to show where he obtained the pipe. Michael Losey, for assault on a man named Smith, was fined $20 and costs, in default of payment of which he was committed to jail.

COMMERCIAL.—The bark Helen W. Almy, after receiving about 175 tons of grain and feed from this place for San Francisco, left in tow of the steamer Fannie Troup yesterday for Vancouver, to discharge 100 tons of government stores for the Fort, when she will finish her cargo with hay and grain, and sail for San Francisco. The bark Sam. Merritt is still loading at Couch's wharf in this city for San Francisco, and will leave as soon as it is possible to obtain a steamer for towing. Those who have freight to ship should be about it soon.

A LOG BOOM.—Webster does not define the kind of boom used by Estes & Stimson, of this city, in securing their saw logs safety at the mill, hence it must be something new, which is admitted to be a fact. It has been constructed after a modern style in New England; is as safe as a common side walk to the employee, and as strong as timber and iron can make it. There is 40,000 feet of lumber and 4,000 lbs. of iron in it, and the labor of its construction occupied forty days. The work was done under the superintendance of Mr. D. F. Stimson.

BUNDLE FOR BUNDLE.—About three years since the State of California was sending to our wharf vessels freighted with hay, and the article received ready sale at remunerative rates. Now we are called upon to return that hay, bundle for bundle, and the bark which left for Vancouver yesterday will take a large consignment on the return trip to San Francisco.

WASHINGTON LODGE, No. 4, R. A. C.—At a convocation of Washington Lodge, No. 4, held at Vancouver, W. T., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. H. Troup, W. M.; R. N. Peabody, G. W.; J. W. Nye, J. W.; T. J. Eckerson, Treas.; N. C. Brown, Sec.; Chas. Daly, S. D.; G. W. Durgin, I. D.; S. B. Curtis, Tyler.

THE SIERRA NEVADA.—We are informed by Messrs. Richards & McCraken, Agents in this city for Holliday's California and Oregon Steamship Line, that the steamer Sierra Nevada left San Francisco at 2 o'clock yesterday for Portland and Victoria.

INFIDELITY.—A document was issued out of the Recorder's Court last evening charging a hitherto respectable married lady with adultery, and for the arrest of herself and paramour. The officers had made no arrests up to a late hour, and failing to find the parties it is supposed the guilty pair have skedaddled.

APPOINTMENTS.—Mr. Mingins will lecture on behalf of the Christian Commission at McMinnville on Thursday, at Lafayette on Friday, and at Oregon City on Monday evening next. He will also lecture in this city on Sunday evening.

THE Ladies of the Christian Commission are requested to meet in the vestry of the Presbyterian Church, Wednesday Dec. 14th, at 2 o'clock. All interested in the cause are invited to attend.

COL. R. F. MAURY.—Col. R. F. Maury has been appointed commandant of the Military Post at Fort Vancouver, and is at present stationed there.

THEATRICAL.—The complimentary benefit to Mr. Hussey will take place at Willamette Theatre to-night.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

The Great Conspiracy against the Union

The foll[illegible] of Judge A[illegible] conspiracy [illegible]

I.—ITS ORIGIN, HISTORY [illegible]

This [illegible] the Western [illegible] first [illegible] struct [illegible] calities [illegible] "Circle [illegible] of the Mystic [illegible] "Knights [illegible] than the exten [illegible] fected at the North [illegible] name [illegible] South, and from [illegible] tures of its [illegible]

In 186[illegible] change [illegible] of the year [illegible] the order of O[illegible] Knights.

The opinion [illegible] Provost-Marshal [illegible] Missouri [illegible] the order [illegible] during his [illegible] Richmond [illegible] ors [illegible] ana and elsewhere [illegible] from Davis [illegible] merly attach [illegible] rest, and a most [illegible] ny will be herein [illegible] that Davis is [illegible]

Connected with [illegible] the rebel General [illegible] the united order [illegible] South. Having been [illegible] into the Order of the [illegible] which in different [illegible] among them the [illegible] New York.

II.—ITS ORGANIZATION [illegible]

There is a Supreme Council [illegible] States and a Grand Council [illegible] ous officers chief of whom [illegible] and Grand Commanders, [illegible] the Supreme Council [illegible] mander. For each county [illegible] ples.

But the strength and [illegible] of this organization lie in its military character. This [illegible] constitution of the Supreme Council provides that the Supreme Commander "shall be the commander-in-chief of all military [illegible] the order in the various States [illegible] service," and further that the Grand Commanders "shall be commanders [illegible] forces of their respective States." Subordinate [illegible] the Grand Commander in the State are the "Major-Generals," each of whom commands his separate district and army. In Indiana the Major Generals are four in number. In Illinois, where the organization of the Order is considered most perfect, the member [illegible] district compose a "brigade," which is commanded by a "Brigadier General." The members of each county constitute a "regiment," with a "Colonel" in command, and those of each township form a "company." A somewhat similar system prevails in Indiana, where also each company is divided into "squads," each with its chief—an arrangement intended to facilitate the [illegible] mode of warfare in case of a general outbreak or local disorder.

The "McClellan Minute Guard," as appears from a circular issued by the Chief Secretary at New York in March last, is organized on a military basis similar to that of the Order proper.

The first Supreme Commander was P. C. Wright, editor of The New York Daily News, who was arrested last May and sent to Fort Lafayette. His successor was Vallandigham. In Missouri the Grand Commander was Charles L. Hunt; in Indiana, H. H. Dodd.

It is to be remarked that the supreme council of the order, which annually meets on February 22d, convened this year at New York city, and a special meeting was then appointed to be held at Chicago on July 1st or just prior to the day then fixed for the convention of the Democratic party. This convention having been postponed to August 29th, the special meeting of the supreme council was also postponed to August 27th, at the same place, and was duly convened accordingly. It will be remembered that a leading member of the convention, in the course of a speech made before that body, alluded approvingly to the sessions of the Sons of Liberty at Chicago at [illegible] time as that of an organization in harmony with the sen[illegible] army of drilled men, ready for forcible re[illegible] law and was relied upon as an ally by the rebel government.

III.—ITS EXTENT AND NUMBERS.

The "Temples" or "Lodges" of the Order are numerously scattered through the States of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Missouri and Kentucky. They are also officially reported as established to a less extent, in Michigan and the other Western States, as well as in New York and also in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and Tennessee.

Its regular places of meeting were well known to the Government. Its members have been variously stated, but Vallandigham in his Dayton speech last summer placed them at 500,000.

It is to be noted that the order, or its counterpart, is probably much more widely extended at the South even than at the North, and that a large proportion of the officers of the rebel army are represented by most trustworthy witnesses, to be members. In Kentucky and Missouri the order has not hesitated to admit as members not only officers of that army, but also a considerable number of guerrillas, a class who might be supposed to appreciate most readily its aims and purpose. It is fully shown that as lately as July last several of these ruffians were initiated into the first degree by Dr. Kalfus, in Kentucky.

IV.—ITS ARMED FORCE.

This was stated in March last [illegible] 40,000 men but the number is uncertain. It is known, however, that the members were required to be armed, that arms were purchased [illegible] that large bodies of men were drilled for service in the field. One witness [illegible] that in Indiana the order had purchased [illegible] muskets and 60,000 revolvers. [illegible] arms were seized by the Government [illegible] Carrington reports that a large quantity of revolvers [illegible] red and thirty-five [illegible] of ammunition, which had been shipped to the [illegible] in Indiana [illegible] of which H. H. Dodd [illegible] was a member, that other arms [illegible] the same destination were [illegible] New York city, and that all these were [illegible] the private property of J. [illegible] one of the major generals of the order in Indiana, and were represented to have been [illegible] "friends." It is to be [illegible] Hon. D. W. Voorhees, M. C., at Terre Haute were discovered letters which [illegible] correspondence between him and ex-Senator Wall of New Jersey, in relation to [illegible] the purchase of twenty thousand Garibaldi rifles [illegible] forwarded to the West.

Arms were brought from [illegible] through Canada, shells, hand grenades [illegible] were made for the [illegible] increasing this traitorous [illegible] foot.

The order in the State [illegible] greatly up [illegible] case of an invasion [illegible] members and friends of the O. A. K. and that the "Paw Paw militia" [illegible] of Buchanan county [illegible] Platte and Clay counties [illegible] have been relied on almost [illegible] in the revolutionary movement.

[Con[illegible]]

ALMOST AN ESCAPE.—George H. Porter came near making his escape [illegible] night last. With the [illegible] had been left in his cell [illegible] furnished him from [illegible] cutting off his shackles [illegible] to crawl through the hole [illegible] window [illegible] but the hole [illegible] and came near [illegible] from his perilous [illegible] Sheriff Settel [illegible] on and stayed [illegible] considerably [illegible] to get through the [illegible]

LANDOR.—Among [illegible] Walter Savage Landor, lately [illegible] vanced age, was the following: "I do not believe the world [illegible] men who reason rightly as New England [illegible]"

LE DOYEN'S

SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

—AND—

IODINE ALTERATIVE

FOR THE

CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may [illegible] keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you can't have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and [illegible] the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, [illegible] Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver,

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased [illegible] of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; his thin, pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and solid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your [illegible] uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some [illegible] of sickness is creeping on you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal, being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and urators of the kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate [illegible] irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.
